Marsha is a fun and energetic teacher. Her sense of color, composition and style and the ability to pass that along to her students is an art in itself!

Marsha says "My philosophy and favorite saying is "It's the journey, not the destination!" As the artist, capturing the emotion of a place, recognition, or a feeling that one can identify with, is important to me. To make you see what I have seen is part of my objective; but to have you feel something when looking at the painting is more my intention ... I call it "viewer participation in the painting." So, the journey of the mind is as important as the journey of the feet!"

Marsha is an award winning artist with National acclaim. This is a workshop you don't want to pass up! So, come take a journey with Marsha!
